Great app to use during the day, they have great online support. If you lose any money it's a mistake you made yourself. I've read some of this reviews on here people making IQ option sound bad. If you don't trust them yet then Facebook me personally I don't work for them or anything. I'll be honest with you

Excellent interface. Great support - shoutout to Alex :) Only problem is that the risk exposure (i.e. maximum purchaseable option) is not forthcoming. Took me months before I figured it out but by then I'd made losses. As such, I only trade EUR/USD as it regularly gives the highest risk exposure (about 2.5k).

Withdrawals have had no issue for me at all. It was a painful process to set up (e-wallet, sending bank card details, passport details, drivers' licence...), but once done, everything is pretty smooth. Ideal case is to deposit from a card, withdraw to a card, withdraw to the e-wallet and then withdraw from the e-wallet back to the card (especially if you're in a country that's not 'supported' by the e-wallet).

Best app for beginners... really great I recommend it to anyone. Best working with Bollinger bands and RSI indicators combined. Lost of profits
